ABSTRACT

This study attempts that student union which has been created with the intention for the betterment of society, but recent evidence on their agitation calls, for more in-depth research to understand their roles and responsibility. Hence, the study attempts to understand the role of students' union leaders towards the Institution and Society in 14 colleges of Bhubaneswar, Odisha. Hence, the study made quantitative analysis by using questionnaire method. The sample consists of 120 students representing from 14 different colleges of Bhubaneswar. The student union members shared the survey and collected the data. The study made an analysis of descriptive and multiple logistic regression analysis. The study found out that the majority of the student union leaders comes from the hostel, and their parents completed the UG or PG degree. Almost all of them came from urban areas and stayed with their parents. Further those students are getting support from academics to their studies. Political organisation majorly helped to their success outcome.
