ABSTRACT

Indian economy during the last six decades has made remarkable progress in various spheres as a result of vision and foresight of our earlier leaders. We are the first in milk production, we are number one in Remote Sensing Satellites, and we are the second largest producer of rice and wheat. Our country exports software to as many as 90 countries in the world. Unfortunately, there are many problems still remain unsolved. Poverty, especially is one such challenge India has been facing today. This paper aimed at knowing the status of poverty in India and offer suggestions to overcome them.

KEYWORDS: Poverty, Alleviation, Anti-poverty programs, India.
